

Dear _____,

I guess I have put off sharing my thoughts and feeling with you because...

Even the thought of having to sit down to do this makes me feel...

For so long I have...

I guess I never really thought that I...

But, I now know that...

Where do I...

How do I begin to...

All the years that...

I wonder if you know...

But, when I think about...

I have so many mixed emotions over...

How I wish...

But now I have...

I never thought I could have so many different...

How can I...

But, I know...

Even as I begin to become honest, I feel...

For too long I have...

I felt that had I...

I never gave myself permission to feel...

I guess I had simply...

I remember the times when...

You always made me feel special when...

You were so selfless when you would...

It makes me smile when I remember...

How you used to make me smile when I would see you...

Our family is so much richer for...

You always seemed to

We could always count on...

Just the thought of you makes me feel...

How I miss the...

I remember Christmas time when...

I could always count on knowing that you would...

We always looked forward to...

I remember that you used to always tell me...

You never forgot about...

It seemed like you were always...\\But, no that there is an empty chair where you used to sit, I feel...

I can't help but feel...

I know you must...

If God allows you to peak down from Heaven, I want you to be able to see...

There will always be...

Regardless of how the years may pass, I want you to know that...

I want to make sure that you...

I will dedicate myself to...

I want you to know that...

I have so many...

I know that you are in Heaven, but I still...

I feel blessed by having...

You have touched so many with your...

So often, I remember...

It brings a smile to my face when...

I know, if you could tell me anything, you would want me to know...

I can only imagine the welcome you received by the Lord when He...

It is neat to think of you with your new body. My how you must be...

I can only imagine how much fun you are having...

As much as I miss you, I would never want...

I know, when we see each other, you will...

I want you to make sure that when I arrive that we get to...

It must be amazing seeing...

No doubt you have been having long talks with...

And, since there aren't any calories in Heaven, I imagine you are enjoying...

Since getting your new body, I am so glad that you don't have to deal with...

It must have been amazing stepping out of your body into wholeness. I wonder what you felt like with that rush of revitalized energy and absence of pain? No doubt you...

Make sure that when I arrive...

I know, if you could allow me to see what you see, you would tell me...

I know that you are so glad that...

I want you to know...

Well, as I begin to think about letting you go and closing this chapter of my life, I feel...

You will always be...

Someday I hope to...

But, for now, I will...

Please know that I will...

I will miss the thought of...

Until that day, ...
